Wisconsin Historical Society
Image ID 45011

Reed School, an authentic one-room schoolhouse three miles east of Neillsville, brings to life the era of one-room school education in rural Wisconsin. Built in 1915, the school served the area's educational needs through 1951. Reed School has a special offer for 2008-09 school field trips. The first 10 school group reservations for field trips will receive $100 to help pay for bus transportation!
